Dear Parents,

Nyngan Public School had a visit from the surrounding Small Schools last Friday. Approximately 120 students, parents and members of their community met in our Auditorium to celebrate the end of their week of activities at the Nyngan Show Ground. I would like to thank the church community who donated the remaining camp fruit to our students. Many of our children enjoyed an additional apple or orange on Friday.

As the holidays come closer I would like to remind families when refreshing winter wardrobes that our uniform includes navy pants (tracksuit is suitable), light blue shirt (red on Friday), navy blue jumper, navy bucket hat (NO caps) and black shoes. As a staff we are encouraging the values of safety, respect and cooperation as decided on as a whole school. You can assist by having your child(ren) respect the school uniform and cooperate by wearing it.

Homework is distributed each week of term as of Week 2. It is not given in the last week of term. If your child claims to not have homework, I would ask that you contact the class teacher. Whilst homework is not compulsory, we believe that it assists students to form study habits that will be needed in high school. If your child is refusing to complete homework I am more than happy to support parents in having homework completed. Please call me.

I would like to extend a final invitation to interested parents and community to join in a meeting regarding Nyngan Public School Plan 2015 -17. The DRAFT of this plan will be submitted to Director, Glenn Stewart on Thursday for approval. The document will remain a draft until Director approval is given. At this point it is will be uploaded to our website.

Keep an eye on the NPS website as Term One event photos will be posted in the holidays.

Have a happy and safe holiday. We look forward to commencing Term 2.

Kylee Pearce,
Principal
